

Loeb-Sullivan School of International Business & Logistics

International Student Language Skills Testing Policy

January 7, 2008

TOEFL or IELTS Requirement

The policy of the Loeb-Sullivan School of International Business & Logistics is to require all students whose native language is not English to submit their test score results from either TOEFL or IELTS as part of the application packet for admission.

Test of English as a Foreign Language \(TOEFL\) or

International English Language Testing System \(IELTS\)

- The TOEFL/IELTS requirement may be waived if the applicant is currently enrolled in the United States in a full-time academic studies program where English is the language of instruction and will have completed two academic years of coursework in the United States at that institution immediately prior to enrolling at the Loeb-Sullivan School at Maine Maritime Academy.
- The TOEFL/IELTS requirement is waived for non-native English-speaking applicants who have received an undergraduate or graduate degree from an institution where English is the language of instruction and who will have completed two academic years of coursework in the United States at that institution immediately prior to enrolling at the Loeb-Sullivan School at Maine Maritime Academy.