

MARINER madness

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17 | 9:00 P.M. | ALEXANDER FIELD HOUSE

Mariner Madness will celebrate the start of the 2014-2015 Maine Maritime Academy Men's and Women's Basketball Seasons as well as honor all Mariner student-athletes.

The first 100 Maine Maritime Academy students will receive free t-shirts compliments of the Student Government Association. During the event there will be a number of great prizes given away including a Kindle Fire, Bluetooth speakers, gift cards, and more!

Assistant Football and Men's Lacrosse Coach Jeff Fell will emcee the event which will feature the men's and women's teams competing in a three-point shootout and a skills competition. The men's basketball team will be competing in a slam dunk competition. Students can compete for prizes in the hot shot competition, dizzy bat free throw shot, and the grand prize event, the half-court shot.

There will be free food, including fried dough, music and more free t-shirts throughout the night. All students, faculty, staff and Castine Community Members are invited!

Head Men's Basketball Coach David Muchnick will be giving away prizes all week via twitter. Follow @CoachMuchnick for a chance to win! #MarinerMadness #RespectTheAnchor

MAINE MARITIME ACADEMY