If you run into technical issues with your laptop, you have access to Dell's top tier ProSupport Plus. This includes 24x7x365 hardware/software support and accidental damage coverage.

You will need the service tag of your system. This is a seven-character identifier unique to your device. This can be located on a sticker at the bottom of your laptop.

Once you have the service tag, visit www.dell.com/support. Input your service tag and you will be given three ways to contact support- email, phone, or chat. Open a case using your preferred method of communication.

If you run into an issue with Dell support, please reach out to WTGStore@WinslowTG.com for escalation.
