Instructions (Applicants/Senior Naval Science Instructors):

1. Visit our website: NROTC - Maine Maritime Academy
2. Click the “NROTC Preparatory Program” tab on the top of the screen.
3. Applicants: Assist your SNSI in filling out all required forms, complete your NPP application, and submit to your SNSI.
4. Senior Naval Science Instructors (SNSI): Once the full checklist from above is completed and electronically filled out, to include SAT/ACT, transcripts, photo, letters of recommendation, physical fitness assessment, your recommendation, the students application, the students personal essay and the NSTC forms, please scan and send the entire signed package to patrick.armstrong@mma.edu and elisabeth.mcneely@mma.edu.

Note 1: You must apply to both Maine Maritime Academy via Common Application and as well as the NROTC NPP program. These applications are separate.

Note 2: If a student is having trouble accessing SAT/ACT testing facilities, we will accept the initial package without those scores. SNSIs should add a note about this situation in the recommendation. Applicants should submit SAT/ACT scores as soon as possible.

Note 3: Other than the scenario described in Note 2, incomplete packages will not be piecemealed together and will not be considered for boarding.

Process:

1. NROTC will begin accepting packages
2. Student must apply to Maine Maritime Academy Admissions Office through Common Application
3. Selection process officially ends. Selections will be done on a rolling basis. Selectees will be given a window to accept or decline their offer once email and telephonic notification are made.
