WE, THE CLASS OF 1975, NUMBERED 156 MEN ON 22 AUGUST 1971 WHEN WE ENTERED THE ACADEMY. DURING THE PAST FOUR YEARS, OUR NUMBERS HAVE BEEN REDUCED BY THE COMMANDANT'S DIVISION, THE ACADEMIC DIVISION, AND PERSONAL REASONS.

IT IS THE FEELING OF OUR CLASS, THE 87 MEN THAT MADE IT THROUGH THE SYSTEM, THAT THESE FRIENDS THAT HAVE LEFT US ALSO HAVE A RIGHT TO BE REPRESENTED IN THIS YEARBOOK; FOR BY THEIR ABSENCE, THEY HAVE ALSO LEFT THEIR MARK ON THE CLASS AND THE ACADEMY.

TO THESE MEN AND TO THE MEN THAT DID MAKE IT, THIS YEARBOOK IS DEDICATED.

MR. WILLIAM JABINE AND ESCORT

FAVORITE TRUSTEE OF CLASS OF 1975

Rear Admiral Edward A. Rodgers Superintendent

MAINE MARITIME ACADEMY CASTINE, MAINE

OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

26 April 1975

TO THE CLASS OF 1975

It is with a great sense of joy that I extend my congratulations and best wishes to each member of the Class of 1975, upon this momentous occasion in your lives. Watching you grow in knowledge and maturity over the years of your matriculation at the Academy has been a privilege for those of us who have had the opportunity to work for and with you. It won't be until you measure yourself against your fellow man in the working world that you will come to understand and appreciate many of the restraints and demands that were placed upon you as a student, all in the name of training. Just as good steel must be tempered and a good lawn cultivated, discipline is an essential part of the maturing process in human development.

From all indications 1975 will be recorded in history as a very difficult year for young people entering the job market. Just as no man is an island apart from the rest of humanity, no school can escape the influences of our society, but some do better than others. It is during difficult times like these that the combination of knowledge and practical training makes such a person more attractive to an employer. There is always an opportunity for a good man and I am confident that because you have successfully persevered through very demanding requirements you have proven yourselves ready to face life's responsibilities and build upon the fine reputation of those who have passed through these halls before you.

As a new member of the Academy alumni, I urge you to keep the family ties that you have developed here as a student. Those of us who remain behind look forward to hearing from you and to your future visits. We are proud of you and wish you well in all your future endeavors.

Once again, congratulations and best wishes!

Deep in the belly of the great ship are we Watching, controlling, masters we be,

The sighing, the crying, the grinding of teeth
 The great strength of metal is brought to our

The great sea we fear, but scared we are not
 For in the heart of the ocean respect we have got

With a heart to our feet, we look for the sea
 We sail from New England to the South

Bucksport restaurant 'streaked'

BUCKSPORT — Laying claim to the fact that some famous person dined at your establishment used to be the going thing for restaurateurs. Now the key to good business is to lay claim to operating a scene of a streaking.

Sunday night Priscilla's Restaurant in Bucksport joined the growing club. The owner reported that the incident occurred about 8:30 p. m. as 25 customers sat watching.

"There were two of them. They opened the door, yelled 'Whoopee' and ran through. They came in the front and out the back," she said.

The owner said the two men were in their 20s and wore masks over their faces.

Middies linked to disturbance

BUCKSPORT — trooper Herb Shuman of Bucksport gave chase to the cars which scattered and eluded police.

The restaurant spokesman said all the students had been drinking beer at the restaurant.

No one was injured, but Priscilla's reported that beer tumblers were smashed and some sugar bowls stolen.

The cause of the disturbance is not known at this time.

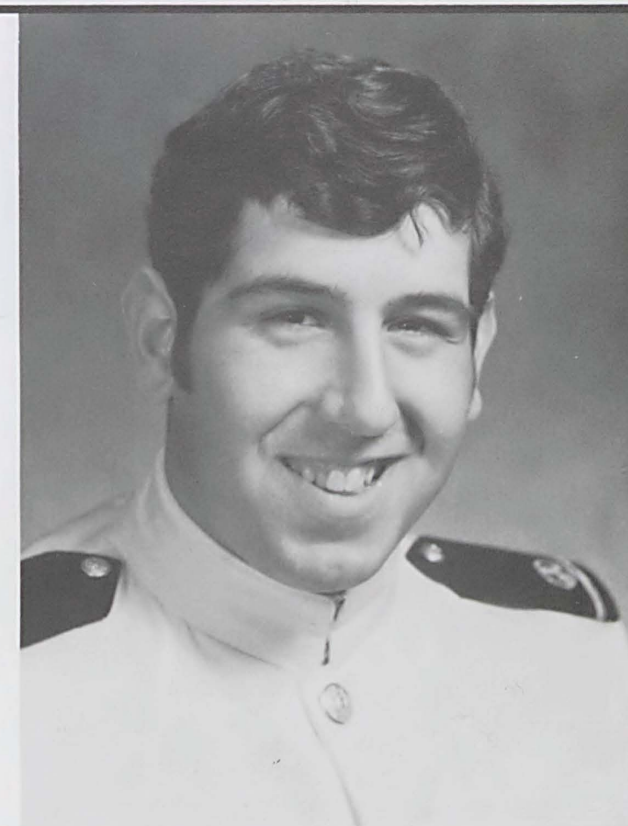

A restaurant employee, who chose not to be identified, said the Castine middies arrived "four or five at a time" between 9:15 and 10 p.m., but left en masse in eight carloads.

State police at Orono confirmed the report and the fact that a cruiser car from the Bucksport Police Department and State

M.M.A. ALL THE WAY, BUT what can you do, they've got your pay.
If you want to transfer to another school, don't be silly to try it you fool, you're already at the bottom of the pool.
You don't like the rules, you don't like the regs, and every few months you get to see legs.
Failing reveille and drinking's unheard, and there's a hell of a lot more that's absolutely absurd.
But when your'e out, it's all over.
Remember chins and hitting a brase, if you don't, you got some case.
Remember the faculty you loved so well,
and once every day you'd put them in hell.
Remember old Jonesy and the food we all loved.
The only thing it was good for was one big shove.
Then it was out of the mess deck and down to the 1st floor, to go see Bill and get butchered some more.
Now it's no more haircuts, chins or brases, no more living in desolate places.
Out in the world to fight for your life, where you're always butchered and put to strife.
Ah, it was a fast four years I spent in the ZOO.
But there will be times when I wish I was back there, and so will you.

RUDYARD KIPLING'S VERSE

IF—

"BROTHER SQUARE-TOES"—REWARDS AND FAIRIES

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

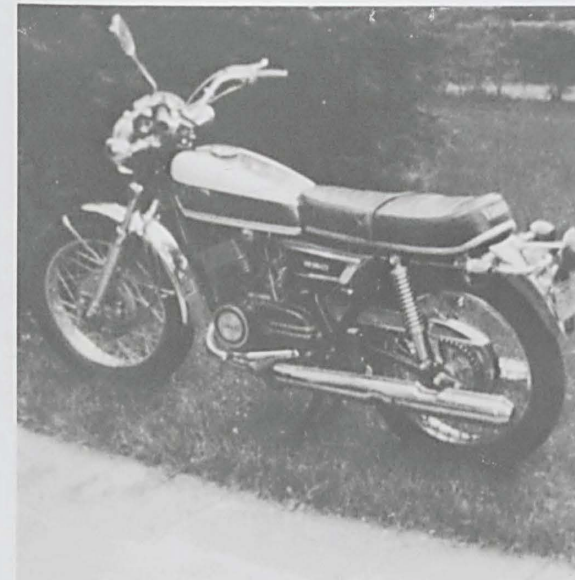

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

Keep interested in your own career,
I possession in the changing fortunes in your business affairs; for the world is run or trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection.

Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of it all, & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.

There are occasions when I talk to a man who is riding high on some recent triumph or insight, and for the moment life probably seems to him to have no problems; but I don't believe that most people are living the smooth, controlled, trouble-free existence that their careful countenances and bland words suggest. Today never hands me the same thing twice, and I believe for most people life is also a mixture of unsolved problems, ambiguous victories and vague defeats — with very few moments of clear peace. I never do seem to quite get on top of it. My struggle with yesterday, today and tomorrow will be well worthwhile, but it's a struggle nonetheless, and one you or I will never finish ...

WHENEVER I FIND MYSELF GROWING GRIM ABOUT THE MOUTH, WHENEVER IT IS A DAMP, DRIZZLY NOVEMBER IN MY SOUL, AND ESPECIALLY WHENEVER IT REQUIRES A STRONG MORAL PRINCIPLE TO PREVENT ME FROM METHODICALLY KNOCKING PEOPLE'S HATS OFF, THEN, I ACCOUNT IT HIGH TIME TO GET TO SEA. THERE IS NOTHING SURPRISING IN THIS IF THEY BUT KNEW IT. ALMOST ALL MEN IN THEIR DEGREE CHERISH VERY NEARLY THE SAME FEELINGS TOWARDS THE OCEAN WITH ME.

LORD, THOU KNOWEST BETTER THAN I KNOW MYSELF THAT I AM GROWING OLDER AND WILL SOME DAY BE OLD. KEEP ME FROM THE FATAL HABIT OF THINKING I MUST SAY SOMETHING ON EVERY SUBJECT AND ON EVERY OCCASION. RELEASE ME FROM TRYING TO STRAIGHTEN OUT EVERYBODY'S AFFAIRS. MAKE ME THOUGHTFUL BUT NOT MOODY, HELPFUL BUT NOT BOSSY. WITH MY VAST STORE OF WISDOM, IT SEEMS A PITY NOT TO USE IT ALL, BUT THOU KNOWEST, LORD, THAT I WANT A FEW FRIENDS AT THE END. KEEP MY MIND FREE FROM THE RECITAL OF ENDLESS DETAILS. GIVE ME WINGS TO GET TO THE POINT. SEAL MY LIPS ON MY ACHES AND PAINS. THEY ARE INCREASING AND LOVE OF REHEARSING THEM IS BECOMING SWEETER AS THE YEARS GO BY. I DARE NOT ASK FOR GRACE ENOUGH TO ENJOY THE TALE OF OTHER'S PAINS BUT HELP ME TO ENDURE THEM WITH PATIENCE.

I DARE NOT ASK FOR IMPROVED MEMORY BUT FOR A GROWING HUMILITY AND A LESSENING COCKSURENESS WHEN MY MEMORY SEEMS TO CLASH WITH THE MEMORIES OF OTHERS. TEACH ME THE GLORIOUS LESSON THAT OCCASIONALLY I MAY BE MISTAKEN.

KEEP ME REASONABLY SWEET. I DO NOT WANT TO BE A SAINT - SOME OF THEM ARE SO HARD TO LIVE WITH - BUT A SOUR OLD PERSON IS ONE OF THE CROWNING WORKS OF THE DEVIL. GIVE ME THE ABILITY TO SEE GOOD THINGS IN THE UNEXPECTED PLACES AND TALENTS IN UNEXPECTED PEOPLE AND GIVE ME, LORD, THE GRACE TO TELL THEM SO. AMEN.

Congrats Hon.
I have come to have an attachment for the walls of KTHA and the roads and the water and the hills that are all a part of the campus. But I guess most of all I will miss the guys! I feel like I am losing more friends from your graduation than my own at Maine.
There is a closeness at the Academy missing elsewhere that seems to bond those persons having shared moments there together.
Now you are to embark upon a new stage in your life, only to return to those undergrad days over a beer in some port with an old buddy.
Your future is filled with success, happiness and good times. And with all my heart I wish you clear skies and smooth waters for every voyage.

8. FROM NEPTUNUS REX, RULER OF THE RAGING MAIN Greetings to all tried and true shellbacks at the Maine Maritime Academy.

My porpoise sentinels have brought to my ears the news that you will be bringing several hundred polliwogs into my domain in the near future.

This is indeed great news, as its been ever so long that we here at the castle have had so much pleasure, of this magnitude. Pass the word to those landlubbers, with traces of heifer dust, and cow dung on their feet as well as those so called city slickers with their wide belts and long hair that we are all very well rested and shall wait for their arrival, with much anticipation.

Inform those sea vermin polliwogs that my company shall make their visit into this domain something they will long remember.

My Queen Amphritite also wishes to send her best to her shellback friends.

"It takes a lot of #6 oil to keep our mill producing a ton of wood pulp every minute."

says James F. Robjent, Purchasing Agent of Scott Paper Company, Winslow, Maine.

"Since 1963 we have depended on Sprague Energy to supply residual fuel oil for the total requirements of our mill, one of the largest in Maine. Every day we use hundreds of tons of pulp to produce such products as Waldorf Tissues, Scott Tissues and Towels. Our converter operation uses hundreds more in manufacturing computer tabulating card stock. We are also depending on Sprague to supply #6 oil for our new Somerset sulphate pulp mill under construction near Hinckley, Me. This new plant will be the most modern of its kind in the world incorporating extensive pollution abatement equipment."

SCOTT PAPER COMPANY is just one of 2,977 New England institutions, businesses and dealerships supplied with fuel oil by Sprague Energy. Like all of Sprague's customers — from electric utilities to oil dealers who serve the region's homes — they have found Sprague to be their most dependable source of petroleum products. Because the Sprague management team is dedicated to serving the energy needs of all their customers, from the largest institutions to the smallest commercial users.

THE SPRAGUE MARKETING MANAGEMENT TEAM — Gim Low, R.I. Div. Mgr.; Robert Hill, N.H. Div. Mgr.; Hank Downey, Light Oil Div. Mgr.; (standing) Henry M. Powers, President; Ralph Seretto, VP Sales; Bruce Probert, Me. Div. Mgr.; and Al Chadwick, VP Transportation & Supply — the management personnel who constantly review shipping schedules, plan construction, check terminal operations, examine processing techniques, and explore new methods to insure a constant flow of vital petroleum products to Sprague's customers.
