MAINE MARITIME ACADEMY TRICK'S END

The History of the Trick's End-

Back at the turn of the century there were sailing ships that serviced the world over. These ships were manned by crew who were obtained by the captain. Some signed on as cabin boys, some were duped on board to serve the captain until the end of the voyage earning their keep if they lived that long. The end of the voyage was known to these men as "Trick's End".

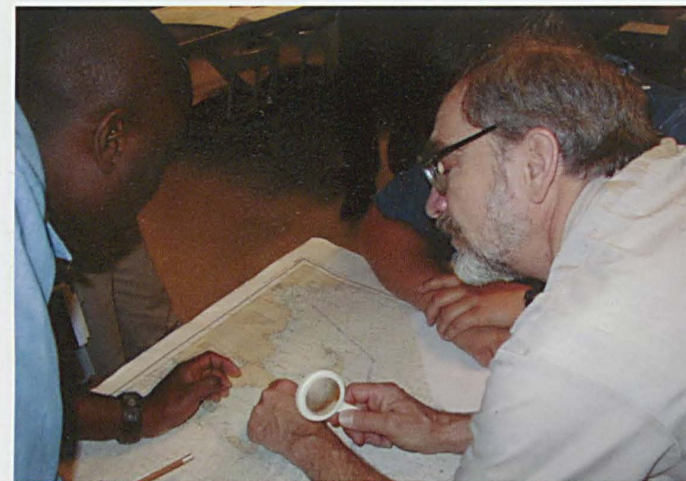

Later, during the World Wars to follow, men who served their country for the Navy picked up the terminology and applied it to their deployment. Upon returning to their home base they would call it "Trick's End".

Today the merchant mariner calls his daily watch a "Trick" and at the end of the watch he is at his "Trick's End". This has carried over to the men and women who serve in the State and Federal Maritime Academy systems.

The "Trick's End" is our yearbook and it traditionally comes to us at the end of our tour of duty. When we leave our station here at MMA we will have reached our "Trick's End". Congratulations to those who will be graduating! Best of luck in all your endeavors. May you sail safely through the rest of your lives.

DEDICATION

CAPTAIN ALFRED BROWN

According to the Oxford English Dictionary the word dedication means "the action of dedicating oneself to a particular purpose." In keeping with the meaning of dedication the Class of 2002 is proud to dedicate this yearbook to Captain Alfred Brown. He has guided us though our tenure here at Maine Maritime Academy making us learn, laugh, and most of all showing us all what a true professional is. Captain Brown has gained our respect and admiration through a concern for all his students above and beyond anyone else. Captain Brown you have shown us a professionalism of which we have been able to see day after day, and will take with use for the rest of our lives. We thank you for all that you have given us while we have been here and hope that we can live up to the standards that you have set for us. Captain Brown you are truly one of a kind. Thank you.

Commandant's Letter

To the Class of 2002:

Congratulations Class of 2002! Together we have traveled through unique millennium celebrations along with a tragic reminder of our nation's vulnerability, and have grown stronger for it. Through it all, the pride, honor, and strength displayed by your class will always be remembered.

Graduating at the beginning of this new millennium, you have the opportunity to become its leaders while shaping the future for the generations to follow. The unique career paths you have chosen, combined with the high level of professionalism you have achieved, will serve you well as you go forward. In these unsettled times you are certainly well prepared for a future more demanding, more challenging, yet filled with more opportunity to make a difference than ever before. So make that difference! Make it with honor, with integrity, and with an effort equal to or better than you have put forth here at Maine Maritime Academy, and I know you will succeed.

On behalf of Commander Frost (the "AC"), Lieutenant Victor Pinkham and Lieutenant Mary Conger, we wish you all "Godspeed, Fair Winds, and Following Seas"! It has been our honor working with you!

Best regards,

Jeff Loustaunau
Commandant of Midshipmen

NROTC Mission

The mission of the NROTC unit at Maine Maritime Academy is to develop midshipmen mentally, morally, and physically. To imbue them with the highest ideals of duty and loyalty, with the core values of honor, courage, and commitment in order to commission college graduates who possess a basic professional background, are motivated toward careers in the naval service, and have a potential for future development in mind and character so as to assume the highest responsibilities of command, citizenship, and government. Upon graduating these midshipmen will receive commissions as Naval and Marine Corp officers.

May 11, 2002

To the Class of 2002:

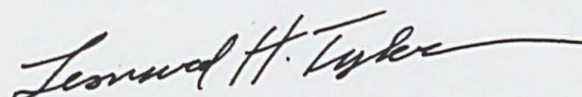

Congratulations! The faculty and staff join me in extending all good wishes as you receive your degrees from Maine Maritime Academy. You have earned and truly deserve the sense of accomplishment that you feel at this time.

Due to the tragic events which occurred in your senior year, you are graduating into an uncertain and perilous world. Still, it is a world of great possibilities, in which I am confident that your education and values will prove equal to any test.

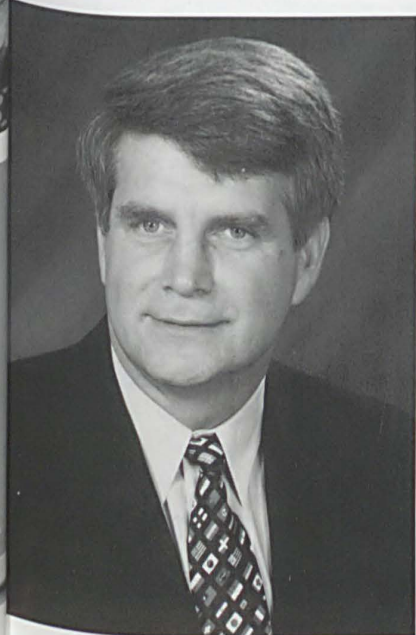

The strength and resolve of this nation will defeat our enemies; of that, there can be no doubt. Some of you will hasten that day as officers in the armed services, some in the reserve components, and others in industries critical to our nation's economic health. In these areas and others, we have done our best to prepare you for a complex, competitive environment. Your expertise and leadership are needed by this country, perhaps as never before.

I wish you great success in all your future endeavors, both professional and personal.

Sincerely,

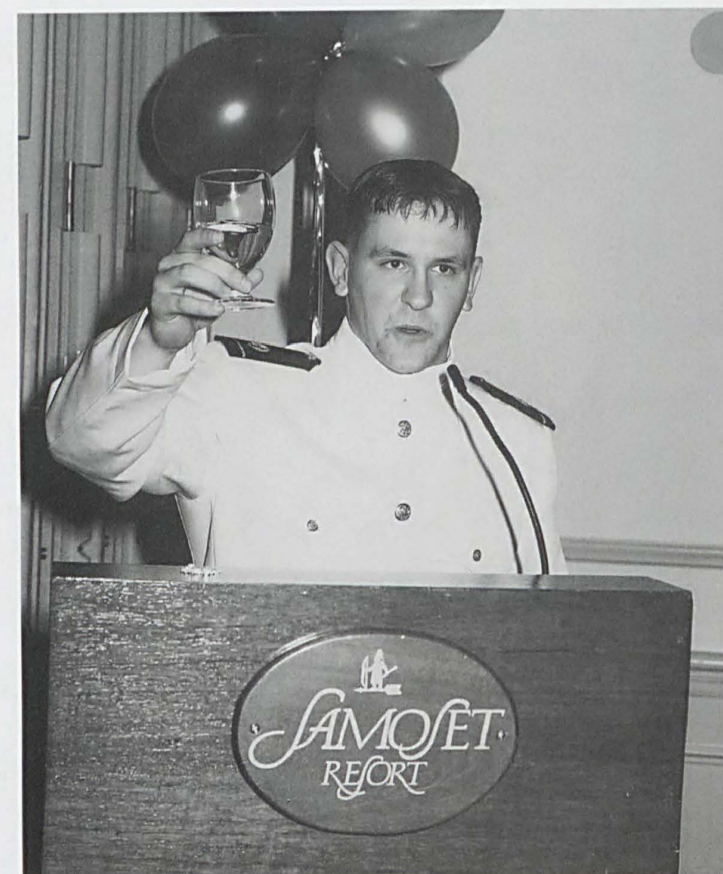

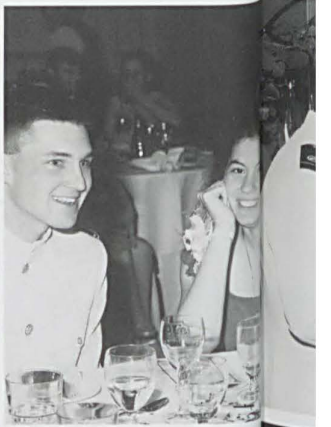

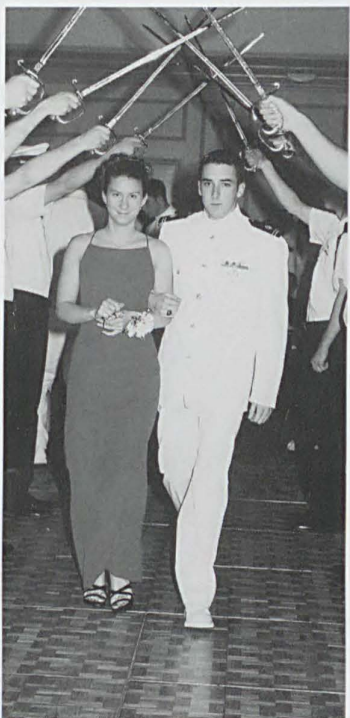

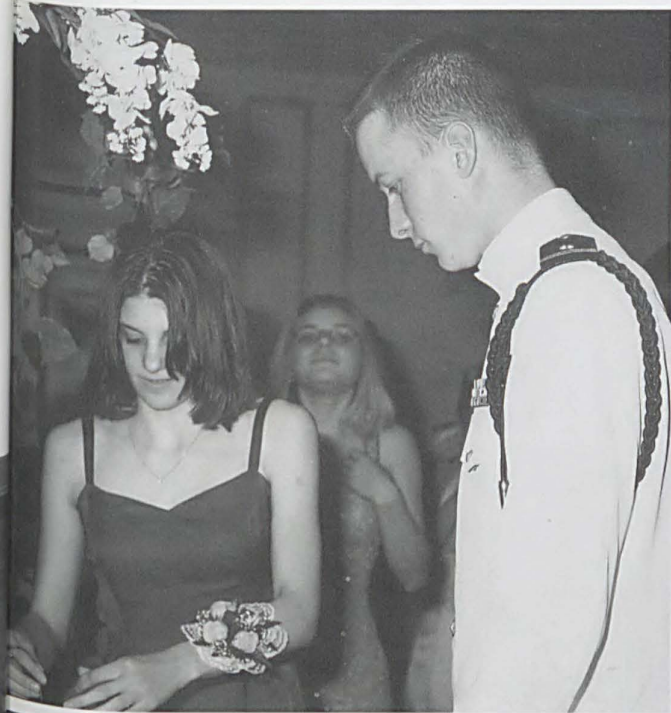

Leonard H. Tyler
President

I believe that courage is all too often mistakenly seen as the absence of fear. If you descend by rope from a cliff and are not fearful to some degree, you are either crazy or unaware. Courage is seeing your fear, in a realistic perspective, defining it, considering alternatives, and choosing to function in spite of risks.

The river is within us, the sea is all about us;
The sea is the land's edge also, the granite
Into which it reaches, the beaches where it tosses
Its hints of earlier and other creations.
The starfish, the horseshoe crab, the whale's backbone;
The pools where it offers to our curiosity
The more delicate algae and the sea anemone.
It tosses up our losses, the torn seine,
The shattered lobsterpot, the broken oar
And the gear of foreign dead men.
The sea has many voices,
Many gods and many voices.

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when the day is gone.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times, laughing times,
and bright sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to be dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

To my parents, who have loved and supported me with what ever I have done and to all my friends, who have been there through tough times and good times. Thank you for everything. You all have helped me venture far from security and have made me realize many things about myself. I am a better and stronger person because of each one of you. I thank you all and hope our paths will continue to cross in the future. I wish you all the best of luck and remember, life is what you make of it.

I have so many people who I would like to thank for their help, and support over the last four years, but the list is long. I will however take this tie to thank a few. The first person I would like to thank is Krista, without your support and love I would have never been able to survive spending four years at the end of the earth. How ironic is that I had to travel from Nebraska to Maine to find and fall in love with someone from Wyoming. To my parents, without your constant pushing and reverence (and money) I surely would have never accomplished all that I have in my life and at the Academy. The next person I would like to thank is Jack Spratt, without your guidance and backing I never had chosen to stay in the MMR program. Next I would like to thank the "Steam Team." Eric, Dave, John, and Jared you guys let a flatlander join your watch team and become a Mariner. For that I will always be thankful. We had good times and bad times, but one of the best times was spending the all-nighter helping each other with the thermo project so that we could go out and enjoy New York. Who else but a bunch of steam guys could do the 2/C engineers liberty secured for a tag. And last but not least to the entire Class of 2002, Jerry Garcia said when he said "What a long strange trip it's been." Thank you.

"The steam team"

"Always and forever"

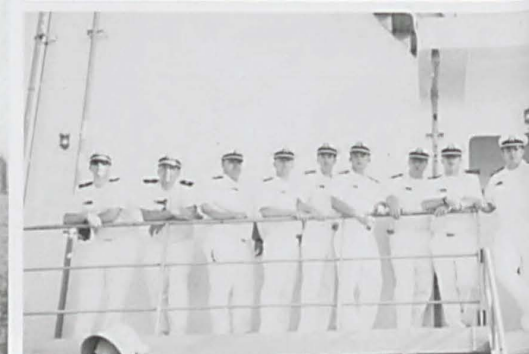

"Preparing for the Winter Carnival"

"Frozen Lovers"

I would like to thank my family for all of their help and support. I could not have done it without you. Thanks to all the boys for being there and always keeping the monotony to a minimum.

I would just like to say thanks to my parents for all your love and support. Thanks to the Housemates for the fun we have had. Thanks to Les and Shanna, for just being there and being like family. To Todd Sehl for making me your best man in your wedding. To Tracy, Sarah, Hobbit, Erin, and Hammy for being friends. Thanks to everyone who have made a difference in my life. Thanks to Dr. Tib., Aran., Doug, and H. for all the work on me. I know I haven't been easy, but I appreciate everything you have done. To everyone else thanks for being there. Good luck in the future and best wishes for the life ahead of you. Peace out.

It has been a long hard road over these past 4 years to get where we are today. I am glad to say that I am a midshipmen of this academy and I feel proud tht we have all chosen to do something different with our lives. To my sister and my best friend. Thank-you for all your love and support. You always listened and were a shoulder to cry on. I love you.

To my family, you have always been there for me even when it seemed like I wouldn't make it. Thank-you for always being proud and loving me. You all are the reason I finally made it.

Good times with great friends. To all my friends, thank-you for all the memories and always being there for me. Good luck to the IBL class of 2002...I will miss all of you. Erin, thank-you so much for all the wonderful memories. Our fun times shopping, stressing over stupid homework, veggie subs, and sledding on the hills in Castine...I will miss you.

To my sweetheart Corey, Thank-you for always loving me, listening and understanding. You have been my inspiration and my strength. Thank-you and I will always love you.

Thank you to my husband Arnie, my son James and my daughter Sarah, for your patience, love and support. Thank you also to my mom for your love and support as well.

The Journey has been long, but has seemed to go by so quickly. The challenges have been great, but none that have been left unconquered. The future that lies ahead is as unknown as the dark night sky. And I am ready...yes, now I am ready. Mom, Dad, Adam, Jon, thank you. I could never have made it this far and pushed myself this hard without all of your love and support. I love you and I will never forget everything you have done for me. You never told me to stop dreaming...and I never will.

We have grown together. You're my best friend, I love you

It has been a good four years. I enjoyed having the opportunity to advance my education and to traveled to so many different places. Some of the stories that I will be able to tell after leaving this place will be among the best I have. I need to thank my parents for their support, and all of the opportunity that they have given me throughout my entire life. They are always there when I need them and they have worked very hard for me. I will never forget that. My sister, even though she hides out in Canada all of the time has also always been good to me, and it's comforting to know that she is there. Lastly I would like to thank all of the friends that I have made here at MMA. We have worked hard, had good times together, and we will remember our common experience for the rest of our lives.

Where has the time gone? It has been a great experience to graduate from MMA with the regimental class of 2002. I would like to thank God for getting me through all the hard times in the past four years. Also my mother who stood beside me and made me strong during my college years. Also congratulations to all my MMA buddies, we are going to go out in the world and prove what MMA stands for. We did it.

The ocean is a place to travel far and near
 A ship is a journey that will get you there
 Through all of the days and all of the years
 No one really understands unless they've been there

What a crazy ride this has been. Thank you sincerely Mom and Dad. You made this all possible. To the fellas: "Life is a waste of time, and time is waste of life, so lets get wasted all of the time, and have the time of our life!" ~ Nitrous

Above all, I cannot begin to thank my family and friends; I love you all more than life itself. Without whom, I would never have gotten not just to this point in my life, but anywhere.

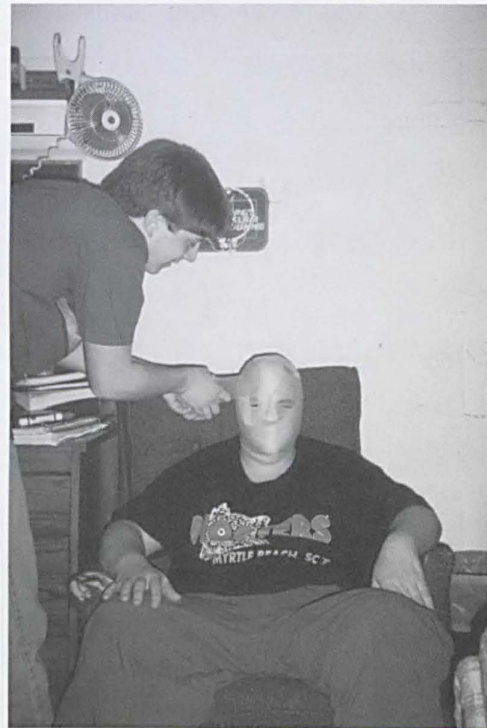

I especially thank my Mother and Father, for everything they have given to me, done for me, done with me, and put up with. My Brother, you are the one, I thank you for everything, and will never forget all the insane times.

Special thanks to my boys back home, you all know who you are. And with everything inside of me I thank my Grandfather St. John, I will never be able to express what I feel when I think of you, who showed me the greatest lessons of my life, I will always have you in my heart and mind.

There are so many people I'd like to thank today for getting me through my time here at MMA. First, I'd like to thank the two people who made this all possible. Mom and Dad, words cannot express the appreciation and love I have for you. Thanks for all the pressure you put on me to do well in school – although it was annoying, I'm glad you did it. I really can't thank you enough for giving me this wonderful opportunity. I love you! This page is dedicated to one of the most important people in my life – my Pa. Pa, though you have gone to a better place, I know that you are always with me. Being here in Maine has made me feel closer to you. To Mahir, thank you for being such a wonderful, supportive boyfriend. I love you for all that you are and all that you have helped me realize I am. To everyone else, family and friends, thanks for everything. It's been a great four years! Thanks for all the memories!

Paints pictures on a windowpane.
He always paints with snow and ice
And never paints the same thing twice
He rests until the summer passes.
His first this year is "Prairie Grasses."
The winter sun will soon erase it,
But never mind; he will replace it.

*This poem is especially for you Howie to make you remember, with fondness your years and times you have enjoyed with your friends and doing what you really want, and strived for means to you, and your family. It sure opens up

Life is a voyage
In which we choose
Neither vessel
Nor weather.
But much can be done
In the Management of the sails
And the Guidance of the helm.

~Mi Sun's

The young rejoice in raging seas
That crash upon the shore,
The surging tide, the foaming surf,
Where mounting billows roar.
But age looks fondly on the coves
Where silent shadows play
And waters still reflect the light
Of softly dying day.
The young may shout with sheer delight
At rigors of the gale,
The oldsters hope for harbors still
Where they can end their sail.

The Man In The Glass

When you get what you want in your struggle for self
And the world makes you king for a day,

Just go to the mirror and look at yourself
And see what the man has to say.

For it isn't your father or mother or wife
Who's judgment upon you must pass.

The fellow who's verdict counts most in your life
Is the one staring back from the glass.

You may be like Jack Horner and chisel a plum
And think you're a wonderful guy.

But the man in the glass says you're only a bum
If you can't look him straight in the eye.

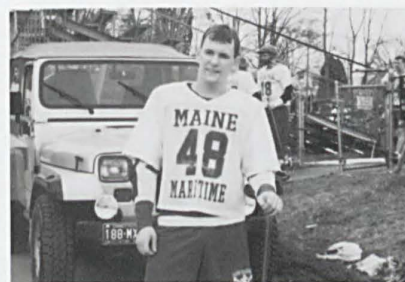

He's the fellow to please--never mind all the rest,
For he's with you clear to the end.

And you've passed your most dangerous, difficult test
If the man in the glass is your friend.

You may fool the whole world down the pathway of years
And get pats on the back as you pass.

But your final reward will be heartache and tears
If you've cheated the man in the glass.

-Author Unknown

May the man in the glass always be your best friend.

We are all proud of you.

DEBORAH MAE

On Friday, January 18th Jon and Kathy gave me a privilege that even God does not have -- to be a grandfather. Little Deborah Mae was born at South County Hospital. She weighed 7 lb. 6 1/2 ozs. and was 20 inches long -- the cutest strawberry blond in the nursery. I was at Newport for meetings so did not get to see her until 11:30 p.m. I took the privilege of visiting my youngest parishioner, and loved it!

Did you realize that God doesn't have any grandchildren? There are no second generation Christians. We must all come to Jesus Christ ourselves. We cannot depend upon our parents' faith, but must have our own personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Paul writes in Galatians 3:26, "For you are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus," and again in Romans 14:12, "So, then, every one of us shall give account of himself to God."

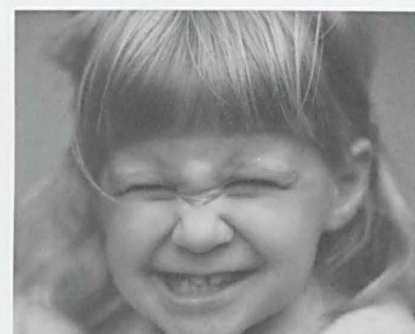

Have you met Jesus Christ personally, or are you depending on someone else's faith? Jesus says in John 14:6, "I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes unto the Father but by me."

Pause now and ask Jesus Christ to be your own personal Savior and Lord.
