2005

Trick's End

The History of the Trick's End-

Back at the turn of the century there were sailing ships that serviced the world over. These ships were manned by a crew who were obtained by the captain. Some signed on as cabin boys, some were duped on board to serve the captain until the end of the voyage earning their keep if they lived that long. The end of the voyage was known to these men as "Trick's End".

Later, during World Wars to follow, men who served their country for the Navy picked up the terminology and applied it to their deployment. Upon returning to their home base they would call it "Trick's End".

Today the merchant mariner calls his daily watch a "Trick" and at the end of the watch he is at his "Trick's End". This has carried over to the men and women who serve in the state and federal Maritime Academy systems.

The "Trick's End" is our yearbook and it traditionally comes to us at the end of our tour of duty. When we leave our station here at MMA we will have reached our "Trick's End". Congratulations to the Class of 2005! Best of luck in all of your endeavors. May you sail safely through the rest of your lives.

G WEEKEND

On September 25, 2004 MMA celebrated Home-coming and the returning classes of 1999, 1994, 1989, 1984, 1979, 1974, 1969, 1964, 1959, 1954, 1949, 1944.

FAMILY WEEKEND

Family Weekend. When MUGs become midshipmen, students get to see family, but most of all a 3 day weekend. This year Family Weekend was long awaited. After a hard fought drill competition, Bravo Co. came out into the lead followed by Delta, Charlie and Alpha. Later at the rowing competition the ocean was not cooperating with the ROO's plans. Overcast skies, winds up to 13 knots and a current ripping through Castine Harbor, were not ideal conditions for rowing. After a rough start; first place was once again won by Bravo Co. Because of the construction, the gun rededication ceremony was held in front of Dismukes Hall. The MUGs then proudly marched onto the field in front of all their family and friends. After the Honor MUGs and MTO's were announced, the moment all the MUGs had been working toward was announced... MUG Honor company. This year after a close race, Alpha pulled into the lead and now proudly bears the name of honor company and bragging rights for weeks to come.

Commandant's Letter

To the Class of 2005:

Congratulations, Class of 2005 on your successful journey through these past few years. From your first days of Orientation and RPT, to your cruise and co-ops, and through the trials of your academic years, you have grown as a class and as individuals. Through it all, the pride, honor, enthusiasm and strength displayed by your class will always be remembered.

You are entering a global arena with tremendous opportunities for all professions and walks of life. Never before have the people of the world been more dependent on each other. Never before have the economies of the world been so closely tied. Never before has the world been changing at such a rapid rate. It is truly an exciting time! But as we all know, along with these opportunities comes an unprecedented amount of unrest and danger all over the world. For the world to move forward towards the betterment of all human kind, there will have to be young men and women with a vision of what they can become, and what the world can become.

The Class of 2005 can be those men and women! Remember your friends and family. Remember the good times! But also remember the struggles and how you overcame them and grew from them. Take all of those experiences with you and you will make your mark on the world.

On behalf of Commander Frost (the "AC"), Lieutenant Victor Pinkham, Lieutenant Mary Conger, Lieutenant Dave Hassett, and Lieutenant (Coach) Brad Dunlay, we wish you all "Godspeed, Fair Winds, and Following Seas"! It has been our honor and privilege working with you through your four years here! You will be missed!

Best regards,

Jeff Loustaunau

RUGBY

On a crisp fall day in 1823, William Web Ellis picked up a football in his hands and ran with it. To this day, backs throughout the world hail this moment as the birth of RUGBY. Forwards, however, know that the game was not really invented until one and a half seconds later, when Roland Dimrumpole drove a squealing Mr. Ellis' face into the turf, kicked him in the solar plexus and told him to "Keep his sodding hands of the ball!"

The Final Diploma

Graduation...a time for joy...and for some...a time for sorrow
To Graduate...means going from one stage in our lives to another
For many that means to graduate from high school or college.
But for some children...it means to graduate to Heaven instead

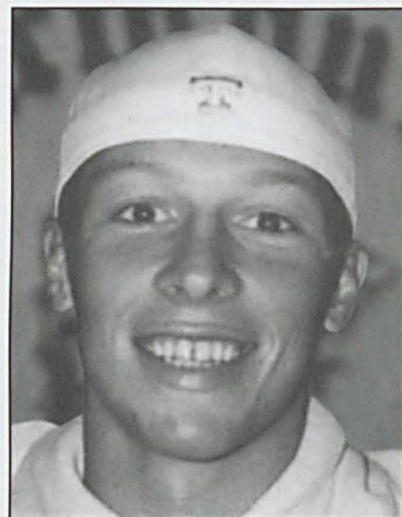

Graduation they say...is a time for change...whether we are ready for it or not
Some now wear a halo...where as others wear a graduation cap
Some will walk across the stage and get their diploma...others now have wings to fly
But...both are very proud of their accomplishments in life....and their family and friends are too
They are still a part of this graduating class....and I hope and pray they will be remembered

And to those of us left behind....We are the ones who have become truly educated...
We have learned so much about life....family...whats important...and whats not
We have been taught that every day is a blessing...and we need to make every second count
And as another year goes by....it marks the end of a stage in our journey of lifelong learning
We hold tight to a past full of rich precious memories...
Memories that will carry us into the future

The past is a time for reflection and cherished memories...these will all help carry us forward...
The future is a time for our hopes, our dreams and our inspirations
We do not need to let go...even though they have graduated to Heaven.
For they are still with us....and will follow us into the future...
And will ALWAYS be a part of our hopes, our dreams, and our inspirations

We take with us what we have learned....and what we hold close to our hearts
We need to thank those who have been by our sides....held our hands...and helped us along...
Those who have listened without telling us to get over it....those who have tried to understand
For without all of you and God.....who knows where we would be
So to those who have been there for me...you know who you are...I thank you with all my heart

As our children, our heros, graduate to a higher level...and get their "Final Diploma"...
The importance of life...and what we have learned...will never be forgotten
For their names are engraved forever in our hearts...and forever in our memories
They are the breath within us that give us courage to follow our hearts...
Whether here on Earth or in Heaven above...their voices will always live on...

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Congratulations! You have stayed the course and reached this long awaited moment. I am confident that as you go out into the world, you will find that the education you have received here will stand you in good stead, regardless of what you decide to do with your future. In this day and age, all of you can expect to change careers several times during your work life, but a solid educational grounding and a great deal of hands-on experience has taught you all to be adaptable and resourceful. We are proud of the fact that our alumni are to be found in so many different areas of business and industry: among them are masters, chief engineers, attorneys and corporate presidents. I look forward to hearing of similar accomplishments for the Class of 2005.

Because this is a small school, I am fortunate enough to come to know many of you and to see the changes wrought by four years in college. Every year we welcome 200 or so new freshmen, many of whom are apprehensive about what this new life will entail. As the years go by, I see them change into competent and confident young men and women with sound values who we are proud to call alumni.

On behalf of all of those who have worked with you at the Academy, I wish you a future filled with achievement, prosperity and service to others.

Come back and see us often...we are always happy to see again those people whose lives we have helped to shape.

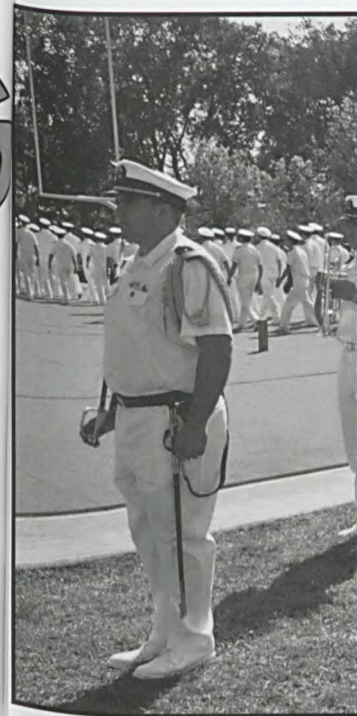

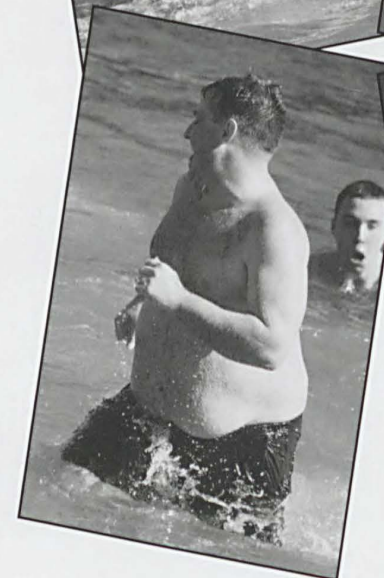

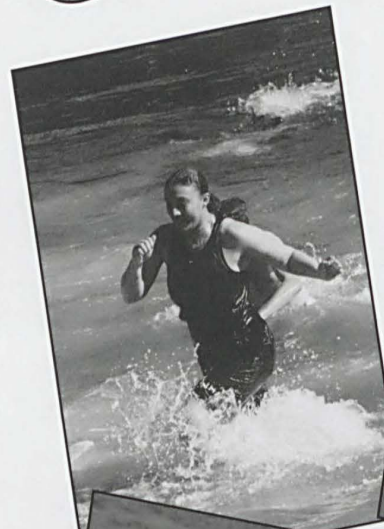

Sincerely,

Leonard Tyler

"I'm sort of at a loss as to why anyone should read Chomsky at any age. The beauty of Chomsky is that the caricatures actually summarize his thought perfectly well. Of the few dozen college students who've thrown Chomsky in my face in an argument, I never once felt like if I'd only read more of him I could be more effective in ridiculing him. I do think you should read criticism of Chomsky from time to time, just to remind yourself of why you're not reading him." - Jonah Goldberg

Thank you to all my friends who have been friends in the good times and the bad times (which are far outweighed by the good). Scott: well...well...well. It seems, at this point that 5 years have not gone by. Truth is that they have!! want to thank GOD for everything He has given me so far, and whatever He might have in store for me the rest of my life. My yearbook and my efforts I want to dedicate to my family. They have been there for me 100%. My Mom and Dad are the best parents any son may ask for; they have never doubted me and believed in me. Lucas and Laura you are the best; I can't say it enough. Abuelos, God bless and thanks for everything.

As for the rest y'all, Lisa thanks for all your help, you helped me get through this when I was under the weather. My crew from the '04; Chris, Ben, Pete, Oesch, Phil, Neil J, and the rest: You guys made my years here the best; I'd say it again, I think I went to school with a bunch of crazy characters. It has been great wouldn't have it any other way. As for BFI and the rest of the Class of 05 it's been real. I didn't think it was going to turn out like it did, thanks for everything it's been a great senior year I had a good laughs and awesome memories

Wow, the four years here at MMA are finally over, What an amazing time filled with so many memories. I have to thank my family for believing in me and giving me the opportunity to come here. I love you all, thank you for everything. I also want to thank all my friends for their support when I needed it most, you all are great. I want to thank my professors for forcing me to learn when I really didn't want to. I can't believe how fast it has come and gone. It only feels like yesterday I walked onto the unknown reaches of Castine as a scared, timid freshman not knowing what to expect. I slowly worked my way into the system and when I finally got comfortable with it, it is time for me to leave and begin my life outside of school. Now that my time is done, I will look back with fond memories. I will miss them all.

First of all, I can't believe we made it, we actually graduated. Secondly, I would like to thank God, my parents, family, and friends for helping throughout the 4 years here. * Now on to the fun part! ~to the boys, thanks for keeping me sane and helping through some of the toughest situations I got myself into. ~to the girls, the random Orono nights, the bus trips for volleyball, the hotel "pillow talk" and everything else. ~Yvette, what can I say...we have a lot of memories, although none of them in good pictures, but the road trips, "chest", "I have to piss", Disney nights, both ring dances, and all those crazy nights we had. Thanks for always being there for me. ~Nina, we made it fun and interesting around here: the text messages, story nights, and ring dance weekend. ~Finally a special thanks to my grandma, I hope I made you proud up in Heaven, cause without you I wouldn't have been the person I am today. I love you and miss you everyday.

These have been the hardest, greatest, and definitely most interesting four years of my life. Thank you to all who have made it happen. Mom and Dad without the two of you none of this would have ever happened, thank you for everything. To the boys, (BJ, CM, MF, AS, SC, MC, AS, MB) we have had some great times, keep in touch, and let the good times roll. CVFD (YK, JB, MC, AS, MB, PL, AL, AT) we've had great times, keep in touch. I have no regrets, I've made some good friends, and I've obtained enough knowledge to make it through. It's been 4 years, a good 4 years or a rough 4 years at MMA who knows. Thanks Mom for all the support and giving me a push when I had other plans other than hitting the books. Michelle aka Bubba, I really appreciate the guidance and influence you have given me. Couldn't have done it without you two.

I would like to give a special thanks to my parents for everything they have done for me in life. If it wasn't for them I would not be where I am today. I love you both, you have inspired me so much through my life. There have been so many great memories over the past four years. Cruise 2002 with Ann and Megan (dancing in a rain storm on the 04 and the crazy nights in Germany and getting into a German Sailor's Mercedes. ReggaeFest for the past couple of years. Scooters in Bermuda. Canada with Jen and Amy. Ring Dance - Alex Chanting in the bathroom with a bunch of us locked in there. The most memorable moments have been spending time with my friends over the past four years. You all know who are and you help me get by everyday. Thanks everyone for amazing times. I am going to miss you all but it's just the beginning for our new adventure in life.

"I really don't know why it is that all of us are so committed to the sea, except I think it's because in addition to the fact that the sea changes, and the light changes, and ships change, it's because we all came from the sea. And it is an interesting biological fact that all of us have in our veins the exact same percentage of salt in our blood that exists in the ocean, and, therefore, we have salt in our blood, our sweat, and in our tears. We are tied to the ocean. And when we go back to the sea, whether it is to sail or to watch it, we are going back from whence we came."

Well it has finally come down to the end of the road. We are finally going to graduate and go out of here. Now that I look back over the past 4 years and see that I have really enjoyed my time here. There were the good and bad times mixed together but all and all its been a really great experience. Throughout my time here there has been one constant: the love and support from my parents and grandparents. They have always been there for me and I can't thank them enough for everything they have done. I don't know where I would be without them. I have made some really great friends that I'm going to miss: JT, SH, NF, JB, TOC, FCR, EB, SC, AS, JP, MG, PD, LDA, BL, PL, and whoever else I'm missing. We had some really great times together. Then there are the "Girls", you know who you are and I will miss all of you. Things won't be the same. Also to the Drill Team, I enjoyed my time as your Commander and wish you all the best of luck. To all my fellow graduates and merchant mariners: Good Luck and God Bless and always Fair Winds and Following Seas. See you out there in the industry.

Sandy Bendixen

Aside from God's grace, you are the greatest gift He has given me. Seems like only yesterday you were a baby and now you're a beautiful young woman. I knew when you were 3 years old, as you put our 65' yacht into reverse, heading full speed for the fuel dock 50 yards away, giggling the entire time, life was going to be full of surprises and never dull. As you have grown, I have watched how you embrace life and take every opportunity handed to you. You have given me the courage to step out and do the same. You have brought me so much happiness, stress, laughter, frustration and continue to amaze me. I wouldn't change a thing! I am so very proud of you. I know gramps and graham cracker would be proud of you too. I'll always be here to love and support you- go out there Angelheart and take that world-it's waiting for you and it's yours! I love you. Mom

Sandy, what can I say to you that wouldn't take a book? You are the most fantastic kid a father could ever have. I am so thankful for your undying love. Never have you backed away from a challenge...it just seems to be part of your everyday life. (Bring it on!) At age 3 you learned to steer the boat in Alaskan waters. At age 5 you helped guide guests to see brown bears with a 12 gauge sawed off shotgun so they wouldn't be eaten. You are the biggest asset to our family and business. The memories I have are priceless. I am so proud of you. Love, Dad

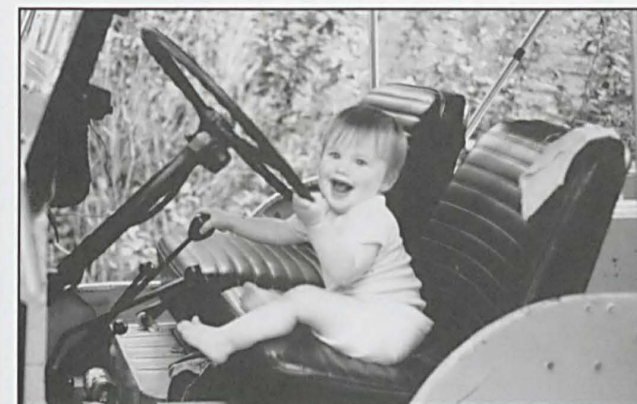

In the beginning God created Sandy and it was good! You are a perfect balance of intellect, curiosity, humor, confidence, individuality, and dedication. We are so proud of you as you end your journey through school. You've shown you're ready for a challenge and all of your hard work has paid off. Congratulations! You've accomplished so much! A passion for the sea has always been in your heart and you've been unafraid to journey into uncharted waters. Sandy you are a rock! Life's stormy waves have pounded against you at times, but your faith and determination has brought you to safe harbor. Good Luck and God Bless in the years to come. Love, Uncle Ralph, Aunt Mar, and Cousin Nicole.

Adam, When we dropped you off at MMA in August of 2001 you were full of both dreams and apprehensions. During your first year the combination of RPT, MUG Month and some tough academic struggles nearly made you decide to continue your education at some place not as "tough" as MMA. Thankfully you have always been a stubborn kid and with the support of your family, the great friends that you had made there and the regimental staff you stuck it out. After a shaky start you moved on to become a Dean's list student and the Drill Team Commander. Watching you lead the Drill Team onto the field at Homecoming this fall made us as proud as any two parents could ever be of their son. Congratulations on your graduation and always know that we are extremely proud of the young man you have become. Love, Mom and Dad

God said, "So you want a baby? Well, it's going to be a doozie!" On August 17, 1982 at 6:27 P.M. we had our doozie, and our lives were forever changed. This life of ours has been an amazing journey. From birth to baptism, from doing your "crab crawl" to dancing and gymnastics, from play group to Daisy Girl Scouts, soccer games, skiing and cheerleading, from giggling about boys with Dana and Ashley to experiencing your first love, from Rainbow Lane to MMA, from MUG month to Freshman cruise to a change in your major to your senior year. As a family we have shared so much wonder, joy, happiness, and even sorrow. All of this is the glue that binds us together. You have been so deeply loved by so many. Grandma Mary, Gaga and

Grandpa, and of course Papa and Nana. While they are not here to see this day, I know they are with you always. Their love is a part of who you are because you were so treasured by each and every one of them. Cameryn, I have had 22 years to think about the day that you would graduate from college and what prophetic and profound things I would say. What would I say to convey to you how very proud of you your father and I are? What words could be used to tell you how very much we love you, and what a miraculous blessing has been bestowed upon us to have you as our daughter? I will defer to the words of T. S. Eliot. "There's no vocabulary for Love within a family, Love that's lived in, But not looked at, Love within the light of which all else is seen, The Love within which all other Love finds speech, This Love is silent." Looking at you with our hearts in our throats, and a smile on our face know that the path that lies before you is a place of hope and happiness, and know too that we are always beside you on your journey. With much love, Mom and Dad
