A TRADITIONAL TRICK'S END?

Back at the turn of the 20th century, there were sailing ships that serviced the world over. These ships were manned by a crew who were obtained by the Captain. Some signed on as cabin boys, some were duped on board to serve the Captain until the end of the voyage, earning their keep if they lived that long. The end of their voyage was known to these men as "Trick's End".

T H E T R I C K ' S E N D

Later, during World Wars to follow, men who served their country for the Navy picked up the terminology and applied it to their deployment. Upon returning to their home base, they would call it "Trick's End".

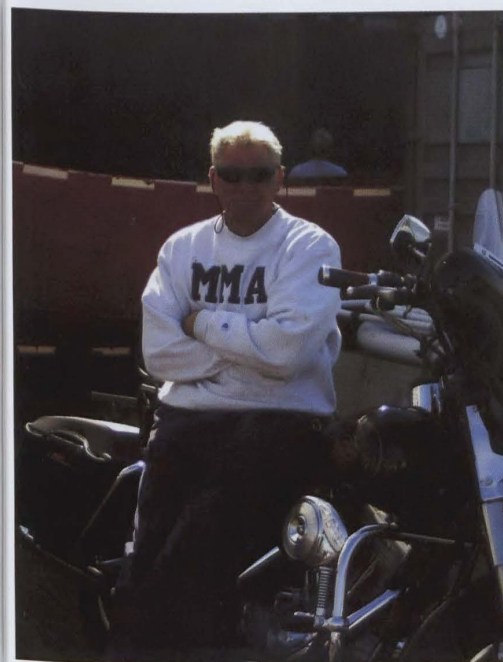

T H E T R I C K ' S E N D

Today the Merchant Mariner calls his daily watch a "Trick" and at the end of watch he is at his "Trick's End". This has carried over to the men and women who serve in the state and federal Maritime Academy systems.

T H E T R I C K ' S E N D

The "Trick's End" is our yearbook and it traditionally comes to us at the end of our tour of duty as students. When we leave our station here at MMA, we will have reached our "Trick's End".

Congratulations to the Class of 2007 on reaching YOUR "Trick's End"! Best of luck on all your endeavors. May you all sail safely through the rest of your lives.

Mark Jani

Mark Jani, the bosun of the TSSOM, has taught hundreds of cadets on cruise and during maintenance. He has changed us in numerous ways. We thank him for his contribution to our growth and development as the Class of 2007. With this dedication, we hope we express our gratitude to him as he has enlightened us both professionally and personally.

We dedicate this to...

Lauren Garrett

Lauren has gained our respect and admiration for everything she has done for the students of MMA. Within the past year as Residential Coordinator and now as Director of Residentai Life and Student Services, she has made MMA feel like a home to which everyone belongs. We thank you for all you have done for us and hope that we can live up to the standards that you have set for us.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Congratulations to the class of 2007!

When you came here as freshmen, graduation day probably seemed a very long way away, but now you have finally arrived and are ready to make your way in the world. The education you have received should stand you in good stead and prepare you for the many changes you will encounter throughout your life. I hope that during your time here you have developed a strong bond with other members of your class, your company, your team or your crew. I hope that there have been faculty members who have inspired you and challenged you to do what you thought was impossible, as well as other members of staff who have helped you along the way. I hope that you have learned not only your course material, but also the value of good citizenship and a strong work ethic.

As you leave us, you will join the ranks of thousands of Maine Maritime Academy alumni who work all over the world. No matter where you go, or what you do, I trust you will endeavor to make the world a better place and that you will remember those who come after you and offer them a helping hand. As you begin this new chapter in your lives, bear in mind that you get out of life what you put into it.

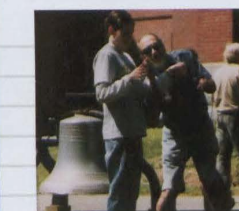

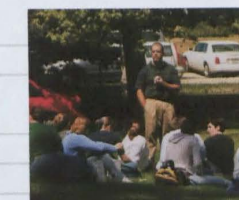

I encourage you to stay in touch with your classmates, your professors, and all of those who have made a difference in your lives. All of us here wish you well. We expect great things from you and look forward to hearing about your lives when you return to visit.

Leonard Tyler

Tradition with a Twist

Maine Maritime Academy

Editor's Note

Tradition isn't always set in stone. It's about looking at the past and putting your own spin on things. Tradition with a twist is what MMA is all about. Without change, we wouldn't progress, but if we forgot where we came from we wouldn't learn from past mistakes. These past 4 years have been a learning experience for all the seniors.

As we took one day at a time and worked our hardest to complete our years here, time flew by. We worked, studied, played and made memories with our friends. Through good times and bad, we went through this together. I hope we all have fond memories of all the different aspects of MMA. Our experiences here have shaped us into who we are today. We have been all over the world and have had adventures no one else can ever dream of. Our time here has ended so our new beginning can start. May this yearbook remind us of the opportunity that we had to know each other and when we look back, may we all have happy memories. Congratulations Class of 2007!

MAINE MARITIME ACADEMY
CASTINE, MAINE 04420
207-326-2250

To the Class of 2007:

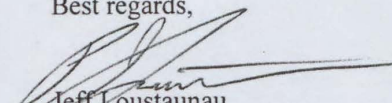

Congratulations Class of 2007! Over the past four years, you have experienced much, not only in your academic endeavors, but also in your personal and professional lives. As a class you have made a mark on Maine Maritime Academy that will long be remembered. Through it all the honor, loyalty and devotion to duty displayed by your class will always be remembered.

Graduating in this day and age, you have opportunities that are unparalleled. Along with those opportunities will also be challenges that you have been preparing for over the past four years here at Maine Maritime Academy. You are well prepared and understand commitment. You understand professionalism, honor and integrity. Think about these in all you do, and you will overcome the challenges you face, and succeed in the opportunities that life presents to you. We that remain here will wait to hear of your successes and the positive mark you leave in all your endeavors.

A final thought worth remembering is from Lillian Dickson when she says "Life is a coin. You can spend it any way you want, but you can only spend it once."

On behalf of Commander Frost (the "AC"), Lieutenant Victor Pinkham, Lieutenant Dave Hassett and Lieutenant Michelle Eaton, we wish you all "Godspeed, Fair Winds, and Following Seas"! It has been our honor and privilege working with you, you will be missed!

Best regards,

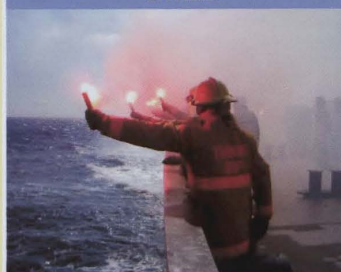

Jeff Loustaunau

Well after four years I've come to realize that it has come and gone too quick. I have so many memories that a half page could barely tell a great story. I had many great times up at the fort with 40s, the cocks, and big Burba, playing ED 40 hands with Rice in Mexico, sled wars behind the truck, the window, the crazy sailing trips, Marc, I don't know how we ever made it to the boat, a car chase from the selectman with Tupper and ski trips to the mountain, the rascal in the van, and living with Les in the GWHT. Now I have many memories of MNSS, bondage, colt45, DJ's, and just a total shit show, there's some I can't repeat or remember, but all the same some of the best memories I'll ever have. Thanks guys we made it: LM, MV, JB, MB, PT, AE, CG, SP, JF, NR, CP...the list goes on. Rachael, thank you for everything ILY. Mom and Dad, thank you for everything. Now that the party is almost over it's time for the last call.

In the past four years at MMA I have learned a lot from my education, life, and also about myself. I would like to thank all my teachers who taught me the right things and pushed me along in class; my parents, because of you two I am who I am today. Deidre for believing in me and I know our future will turn out bright. My Brother for being their for me, but mostly for the rides home and to school. Also my friends who I share laughs with. I am happy I am done school now, and I am ready to seek what is out there in the real world.

So I came here absolutely positive I was going to captain ships. Four years later: I'm leaving with an engineering degree. What have I learned? In summary:

The language of the voice which guides you is never one which you cannot comprehend. Listen, interpret, follow. Life will unfold gloriously before you.

My time here at MMA could not have been completed without the support of my family. My parents, grandparents, brothers, and sisters have stood by me through it all. Nichole, you have been great and I can't thank you enough. I love you all! It hasn't been easy and it hasn't been all good, but it has been worth it. These past four years wouldn't have been possible without the MMA Boys keeping me sane. We've had some great times that I will never forget. Wish all of you the best of luck!

My time here at Maine Maritime has easily been the best time of my life. No matter how hectic school got we always had a blast, whether it was staying up until all hours studying and laughing or going out on the weekends. I have met some truly amazing people that have touched my life in ways I never thought was possible. To all my new found MMA friends, thank you for the memories. To my family (the Sionni's, Carnevale's, and Sayers'), my boyfriend Mark, and my RI friends thank you for believing in me and supporting me through the good and the not so good. And finally to the class of 2007, we made it guys and what a ride it was! Here's to the future...may it be bright.

Castine: the town that makes you miserable. But what makes it half-way bearable? FRIENDS. In the past 4 years the most important thing that this has taught me, is that Friends AND Family WILL get you THROUGH! The love and support from Mom, Dad, my Brothers and Sister, not to mention the life long friends I have made, have made Maine Maritime an experience that we will NEVER forget. Not only have I gained great friends, but an incredible boyfriend that for the past 4 years has stood by my side, believed in me, and supported me, even when everything seemed impossible. Thank you to everyone who has made me laugh or even made me cry. You have helped me get through, and you have made this place worthwhile.

I'd like to thank all that have inspired me, and helped me in the past four years and beyond. Dad for putting the first wrench in my hand almost twenty years ago, and putting gears in my head and sea in my blood. You have not only given me a jump start for this life beyond school, you have helped me get through it. Mom for helping me be more creative with myself. Its pertained to my life more than I let on. Your aspect on the world and life has taught me to look at every point of view. Tom, your help has been greatly significant in helping me make it through school. You've encouraged good work ethic and have been extremely flexible and patient with my schedule and ability. I couldn't have done it without you! Chris and Jen, for your help and encouragement to be a better person. Your friendships and examples will forever be remembered, especially at key points in my life. Thank you, and R.I.P. Jen. Samantha, for your love and patience. Colby for always being there. Josh for never getting sick of me, preschool through college. All friends not mentioned for all the good times. I will never forget my very first trip to MMA, in where I thought was going to be the very epitome of the "boonies". I started to have very strong second thoughts about attending. Now, however, looking back, I quote my father: "Sometimes you just don't know what's good for you." So I am glad I stuck it out. All I can say about my time here at MMA is what an adventure; what I have learned both in the classroom and out, the countries and places I have seen, people I have met, experiences I have had. It has been a challenging and rewarding four years, and because of the loving support and encouragement from my friends and family, and most importantly my Savior, Jesus Christ, I am where I am today. Thank you all for the awesome memories and such great times! Fair winds and following seas and to all my ROTC buddies, see you out in the fleet!

Without my family, I wouldn't have been able to get through the last 4 years. Even though none of you still understand what I'm doing, thanks for your support. I want to thank my Mom for being more amazing then she'll ever know. I love you.

To all my friends, thanks for the last 4 years even though you all still make fun of the way I talk! Nyssa, Amy and Molly, you guys made being 1000 miles away from home worth it. Colin, no matter what ends up happening, MMA wouldn't have been the same without having you there with me.

It is hard to believe four years has passed. It seems like just yesterday when I was cuddlin' with my MUG mate to stay warm on the ship during RPT.

Thank you Bubble Heads, "narcin'-out" with you has been a pleasure.

DT, at times I have wanted to scream. At times I have. But it has been a great experience. You have taught me so much.

Finally, I would like to thank my family. David, you have become an important part of it. I love you all and couldn't have done it without you.

These last four years at MMA have had many ups and downs, and thankfully I have survived it all thanks to the love and support from family and friends. I want to thank my Mom & Dad for supporting me emotionally and financially, while also motivating me to succeed in everything I do. My big brother, Jamie, for always being there for someone to talk to and showing me how to experience life and have fun. And last but not least, my husband, Ken, who always made me laugh through good & bad, and for always supporting me and giving me the love I needed to make it through the end of my college journey to begin a new one with him. I love you all very much and will always be there for you, as you were for me.

My loving parents and best friends.

My husband and I on our honeymoon weekend.

From the little girl with long brown hair pulled back in a ponytail and a band-aid on a knee or elbow, playing with a truck in dirt or a boat in water while making "vroom" sounds to the beautiful young lady who stands before us today (of course, you still wear your hair in a ponytail, and there is usually a scrape or bruise hidden from view because you still enjoy playing in the dirt...almost as much as you love playing in water!) Things have changed very little, especially your independence, sense of humor, character and your place in our hearts. Congratulations on your success, Sarah, we are incredibly proud of you!

Scott A. Payne

Some years ago- you had an illness which could have easily taken your life. You gave it 110% and you were given a second chance. You put your application into MMA and set out to make your dreams come true. Setting high goals and obtaining them is part of who you are. It's no wonder you're in the responsible position of RC at MMA. You have earned it. As then you were strong- so are you now... even more so. To have attained a college degree has made your future brighter for both you, your wife and family. This in itself has proven your dedication and determination which has been a driving force within you. This has been an amazing journey for you. It's only the beginning of many journeys you've yet to explore. Enjoy your life on the Big Blue Sea, with family and friends on land, and soar through life with the courageous career you've made possible. Your dad has given you many adventures on the water. From fishing the rivers of New York, to fishing on the ices of Maine, to fishing the ocean. You've grown to love the waters of many places. One adventure after another with many wonderful memories banked for always. It's no wonder you have a passion for the water. The first day I saw you in your whites... you were so handsome and grown up. Your dad and I are so very proud of you and our respect for you grows more every day. Four years have just flown by. It's amazing to see how far you have come since your first year at MMA. You put forth so much and gained so much more. You've built strong bonds with family and faculty at MMA that you will cherish always. Your character is a helpful nature- always giving yourself. It is not easy to do the things you do. You balance so much with work, friends, family, a job, extra curricular activities and most recently, a wonderful wife. Your brothers Brandon and Cedric, look up to you so much... we can easily see why. Throughout the years you've stayed true to your values and held family and friends in the deepest regards. Your dedication to college has made you who you are today. MMA has expanded on that and made you even stronger. Your dad and I are so proud of you. You see Scott... you are a wonderful young man.

All our love always, Mom & Dad

To see a boy grow into the man you have become is wonderful. As your grandparents, we are so very proud of you and your accomplishments. We wish you nothing but the best in all your endeavors. May all of your dreams come true.

With much love, Nana & Papa

Scott, Best wishes for your future endeavors. We all are proud of your accomplishments. Good luck!

Ruth, Ray & Grammy Ada

Scott, I could not be more proud of you. You were given a challenge- you took it, and rose above it. You truly can do anything you set out to do... Never give up- and you cannot lose.

Loving you always and forever... Heather

Can you believe the time has come. First graduation from high school, then your wedding to Heather, and now graduation from MMA. Time does seem to go by faster as I get older, but with that comes many fond memories of you! We are all so very proud of who you have become and all that you have accomplished. One of your strengths that I admire is your ability to communicate. This will carry you far with your work and your life at home. Stay true to your heart and be happy in your decisions as you move forward towards your dreams.

With lots of love and bear hugs- Aunt Laurie

Congratulations and best of luck!

From all your friends and family

Luke C. Damon

How proud I am of you, my son.
You've worked quite hard, but also had fun
From the time you were young
& played in the bubbles,
You've caused your dear mom just a
Smidgen of troubles!!!
From the time you could sit up,
You loved engines that zoomed,
You now work with big engines...
as big as a Room!!!
Your journey will take you to far away places,
You'll have many adventures & meet many new faces.
Your academy years have been quite a whirl...
You've been just 'round the corner'
or 1/2 way 'round the World!!!
So congratulations to my favorite cadet--
Your life will be fulfilling, on that you can bet.
So sail away on the ocean sea foam,
We'll always look forward to the times you come home.
The exams finally over, (they caused you some stressing),
It's now time to offer you this old naval blessing.
Along with this prayer, I send my love, if you please:
Always be blessed, "Fair Winds & Following Seas".

Levitt A. Storer

We are very proud of all your accomplishments at MMA.
Congratulations and Good Luck with all your future endeavors.
Love,

Sandy Hook Pilots

The Pilot Boat America servicing ships at the Ambrose pilot station, 17 miles offshore.

For over 300 years, pilots, sanctioned by and charged to protect the people of the States of New York and New Jersey, have been braving the elements at the entrance to New York harbor providing their services to arriving ships. "Always on Station" is not simply a motto; it defines a commitment made by every state and federally licensed Sandy Hook Pilot.
